Dear Parent/Carer,

Wow, what a wonderful week this has been! The Christmas Fayre was a huge success – it was wonderful to see so many families support this event. Thanks to your generosity, we raised over £900. Christmas came early to Morrisons on Tuesday as our school choir took centre stage and performed Christmas Carols with great gusto. They attracted many customers who kindly donated money towards our school fund. A huge thank you to Mrs Wilcock and all the staff who continuously dedicate their time working with the choir, and of course the pupils who always perform with such enthusiasm.

Forget the X Factor – the pupils from Nursery and Petals definitely had the cute factor whilst performing their Nativity and Christmas carols. I couldn't stop beaming with pride, and nor could the audience who couldn't take their eyes off their children. Thank you to all the Nursery and Petals staff for their continuous hard work and dedication.

I'm really looking forward to continuing the festive celebrations next week!

Have a lovely weekend.

Mrs Ruth Biller

Christmas Jumper Day is taking place on Wednesday 19th December (the same day as whole school Christmas lunch) for a suggested donation of £1. Children may wear Christmas jumpers and non-uniform at the bottom.

Our school choir had a fantastic time on Tuesday this week singing Christmas Carols at Morrison's at Thornbury. The support we received from the public was wonderful. They donated £168.99 towards school funds.
